

2019 DANA CRAWFORD & STATE HONORS AWARDS

MAY 13, 2019 | 5:00PM-8:30PM
SEAWELL BALLROOM AT THE DCPA
1350 ARAPAHOE ST, DENVER, CO 80204

Each year, Colorado Preservation, Inc. (CPI) recognizes the efforts of individuals, organizations, public agencies, and businesses from across the state of Colorado, whose work demonstrates excellence in historic preservation. Accomplishments are recognized in the areas of preservation, rehabilitation, stewardship, preservation leadership, and philanthropy.

The 2019 Dana Crawford award this year will go to Bart Berger who founded the Denver Mountain Parks Foundation in 2004 to educate about and fundraise for the Denver Mountain Parks. Recent success includes a recent ballot initiative to raise money for parks that will provide more than $45 million per year for parks construction and maintenance.

About Colorado Preservation, Inc.

The mission of Colorado Preservation, Inc. (CPI), founded in 1984, is to promote historic preservation in the state by providing information, education, training, expertise, and advocacy. Our mission is achieved by partnering with historic property owners, non-profit organizations, educators, and local governments. Through CPI's signature initiatives like Colorado's Most Endangered Places and the Preservation Services Program, we work with the public to identify and protect some of the state's most important, yet threatened, places. CPI provides essential training and networking opportunities to individuals working to protect our state's heritage through our annual Saving Places Conference.
