Dana Crawford & Alpine Bank State Honor Awards for Excellence in Historic Preservation

Colorado Preservation, Inc.'s (CPI) annual Dana Crawford & Alpine Bank State Honor Awards is Colorado's premier statewide preservation awards event, honoring significant contributions toward preserving Colorado's built and archaeological history as well as saving working landscapes. The evening's namesake is Dana Crawford, a preservation pioneer who proved that saving historic buildings makes economic sense. The Dana Crawford & Alpine Bank State Honor Awards recognizes individuals, organizations, public agencies, and businesses from across the state, whose work demonstrates excellence in historic preservation.
